

With the End in Mind

Today's Scriptures

Philippians 3:7-10

Ephesians 1:19-20

Romans 8:28-29

Picture yourself as a guest to your own funeral.

We really should begin each year, each month, each week and even each day with the end in mind.

I would want to know God in my private life.

I would want to grow with God in my personal life.

I would want to show God in my public life.
